Dear Parents,

I do hope you enjoyed your summer break and feel rested and ready for our new school year. It has been a pleasure welcoming the children back to school, they have enjoyed their first week.

We wanted to introduce our new strategic leadership team. Across both schools, supporting all children and families, are:

Mrs Lucy Howe, Headteacher, responsible for: vision, values, budget, human resources, school improvement, governors, strategic direction, outcomes and attainment

Mrs Heather James, Deputy Headteacher, responsible for: strategic lead for special educational needs and pupil premium. ELSA line management, reduced hours provision, alternative provision

Mrs Sophie Foster and Miss Katie Kynaston, Assistant Headteachers, responsible for: teaching and learning, curriculum implementation and impact, well-being

Mrs Clare Kealey, Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENDco), responsible for: operational special educational needs provision- liaison with families, external agencies, the LA, documentation, thrive

These adults are our non- class based leaders and are available for you to contact should you have any concerns about your child or their educational provision. Typically, Mrs James will be based at the infant school and Mrs Howe will be at the juniors but both are responsible for all children and can be contacted at any time. Likewise, Mrs Foster and Miss Kynaston are also available should you wish to raise any concerns or if you have any questions.

For all SEND concerns, please contact Mrs Kealey. She works across both schools and either school office can take messages on her behalf.

Whenever possible, leaders will be on the gate and available every day. Please do come and find us or email/call either office and leave a message. We will always get back to you.

Best wishes,
Foxhills Leadership Team
